

Cotterell expresses worldly view

BM64031

■ Yani, left, and Leah Cotterell of West End . . . performers in Wordly Women show.

Picture: Brad Marsellos

By LAURA BUTTIGIEG

“THE world can’t live without music.”

So says singer/songwriter Leah Cotterell.

“It’s self-expression and it connects you to different times and different places that nothing else can.”

Ms Cotterell has been expressing her music for more than 25 years.

Part of the Worldly Women show, the West End resident will perform at the Judith Wright Centre this weekend along with three other performers; Yani, Sarajai, and Anje West.

“The concept is a great expression of how varied music can be,” Ms Cotterell said.

“This is a long-lived event, it’s one of a long list of concerts and it’s very popular because it’s very warm.”

Ms Cotterell said the concert would showcase numerous kinds of music including Cuban, American, African, Irish, Kelzma, Brazilian and much more.

Her performances of traditional and original music will also include support from guitarist Jamie Clark.

The Worldly Women Show starts at 7.30pm, February 12.

To book tickets phone 3872 9000.

Gig guide

Thursday, February 10

Broadway Hotel: Mad Ass Acoustic Music Club (7.30pm)

Coorparoo RSL: Denis Warren

Stones Corner Hotel: Comedy Night hosted by Andrew Nason (8pm)

Friday, February 11

Boundary Hotel, West End: Blind Dog Donnie

Satchmos, West End: Jook Joint Johnnys

Mojo’s Coorparoo: Mojo Webb (5.30pm)

The Pavillion, West End: The Shady Bunch

Dockside Comedy Bar, Kangaroo Point: Terry Hansen, Greg Sullivan, Stuart Davidson, Kent Valentine, Casey Talbott

Stones Corner Hotel: Geek (9pm)

Saturday, February 12

Dockside Comedy Bar, Kangaroo Point: Terry Hansen, Greg Sullivan, Stuart Davidson, Kent Valentine, Casey Talbott

The Pavillion Bar, West End: J-Funk

Stones Corner Hotel: DJ Zander

Sunday, February 13

Coorparoo RSL: Dick Barnes

Stones Corner Hotel: Cameron Smith Trio (2.30pm)

Souths Rugby Leagues Club, West End: Kerry Rose and The Swing Kings, Michael Turner’s Blues in Session Play (3pm)

Monday, February 14

Satchmo’s, West End: Mark D’s Big Three

Tuesday, February 15

Hotel Broadway, Woolloongabba: 3 Minor Groove, Cameron Elliott, Cloudrun, The King George Affair